Guided Visit to the Indios no Brasil Exhibition

Join the ACB on Saturday morning, February 4, for a guided visit in English to the exhibition Indians in Brazil at the Royal Museums of Art and History in Cinquantenaire Park. The multifaceted exhibition brings together archeological and contemporary artifacts from Brazil's diverse indigenous cultures. Many of these works have never before been shown in Europe.

The 290 objects on display come from leading Brazilian anthropological museums, and were chosen to introduce the visitor to the fascinating tribes of Amazonian Indians – to learn how the different tribes live, what they eat, what they wear, and their relationships with the forest and the world of spirits.

Magnificent feather crowns, woven baskets, ceramic funeral urns, masks, toys, musical instruments, everyday tools and weapons, as well as beautifully crafted sacred and ritual objects reveal the rich variety of cultures and artistic traditions of Brazil's native peoples. In addition, the exhibition presents contextual photographs and video clips of religious ceremonies, coming of age rituals, and burial rites made by both Indians and ethnographers.

The next lecture, The Drama behind the Taj Mahal, will be held at 8:00 p.m. on Wednesday, February 8 at the Maison Communale, Avenue Paul Hymans 2, 1200 Brussels (Woluwe St.-Lambert). Welcome drinks will be offered starting at 7:30 p.m. For more information, visit www.bridfas.org.

The Brussels Bookswappers Club

Every fourth Wednesday of the month, booklovers get together to swap books that are gathering dust on their shelves. Come along with any number of books you wish to exchange for other titles left at the club by its members. Fiction as well as non-fiction is welcome, and there is a special section for children's books. You are encouraged to bring books in English as well as in other major languages.

A team of Meeters & Greeters will welcome you and explain how the system works. There is no membership fee. The venue is the brasserie Aux Enfants Terribles [Chaussée de la Hulpe 190, 1170 Brussels (Watermael-Boitsfort)], near the International School of Brussels. The next

The Brussels American Community Chorus invites adults and children over 12 to sing. All nationalities are welcome. Men are especially needed. There is no audition, and no experience is required. Rehearsals are every Monday from 7:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. in Kraainem. The chorus sings to enjoy music and to support the community. It performs several times a year at American and Belgian events. ## A Walk on the Wild Side

Join other English-speakers for a guided tour of the Scheutbos, a 50-hectare nature reserve west of Brussels on Sunday morning, March 25, starting at 10:00 a.m. Two guides (one native English speaker and a French-accented one) will explain the methods by which the broad and often unexpected biodiversity of this wonderful reserve is encouraged and maintained. There is no charge, since the only goal of the Friends of the Scheutbos is to educate people in how to preserve nature. The tour is two kilometers long. Children and dogs (please bring pooper-scooper bags) are welcome. Boots or good walking shoes are advised, since parts of the trail can get quite muddy, and there will be some stops for explanations, so warm clothing is recommended.

We will meet at the end of Scheutbosstraat (the rue, not the avenue), which starts on Boulevard Mettwie just opposite the end of Boulevard Machtens, close to the #49 bus "Machtens" stop and the terminus of the #86 bus from De Brouckère. Parking is available at the meeting point. For more information, contact Jean Leveque at 0496/53.07.68.

The American Club of Brussels is one of the oldest American clubs in Europe, founded in 1921 to foster Belgian-American relations. Although our members comprise more than 20 other nationalities from all walks of life, the ACB retains its American flavor. Some of us are long-time residents in Belgium. Many of us are newcomers. We all enjoy ourselves and the club's wide variety of social and cultural activities.

The ACB is a great way to expand your circle of friends and to discover more of the delights of Belgium. Try us.
