Korallion | Tales from the Autotrophic Reef

Wine & Canvas

Friday, 21 November, 5pm-8pm

We invite you to join us for a sensuous evening of fine wine and exquisite art created by Elena Gil.

Serendip's Wine & Canvas is a monthly event organised to celebrate new artists. We invite you to join us in this inspirational and luxurious evening that encourages serendipitous conversation and chance meetings. Participate in a beautiful tasting of select wines and take in the beauty that surrounds us.

Elena Gil challenges on a daily basis the dichotomy between science and art. During her free time, this young woman from Madrid immerses herself in the pursuit of the generation of emotions through the use of colours and textures.

Her unusual painting techniques result in unrealistic universes that make of the viewer an accomplice. The observer is invited to become a co-creator, to build his own interpretation and mindfully experience the emotions and feelings aroused by these unreal worlds.

Welcome to this abyssal ride.
